Please take a moment to complete the next page of this form to indicate how you might like to participate in the activities of our Society.

Completion of this side of the form is optional however your input will assist the Society to better understand and utilise the capabilities of our members and to engage you in activities that you will enjoy.

The Bus Preservation Society of WA has no paid employees and is operated and managed by its Members on a volunteer basis. The Management Council (Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer and eight Councilors) manage the day-to-day affairs of the Society. The Council establishes strategic direction and plans, manages the legal and regulatory responsibilities, and maintains financial stability.

The Bus Collection and extensive Archives and Memorabilia Collection are kept in our Depot at Whiteman Park. The Depot includes a workshop where our buses are garaged, serviced, repaired, and restored for display and operational service. The workshop volunteer hours are each Tuesday between 08:00 to 13:00 hours.

BPSWA publishes a quarterly magazine "Rattler" for its members. It contains articles and photographs of current and historic bus interest and is included as a benefit of membership of the Society.

BPSWA maintains a website (BPSWA.org) through which the membership and the public can be informed, maintain communication, and are encouraged to participate in the life of the Society.

BPSWA operates the Discovery and Explorer bus services in and around Whiteman Park.

BPSWA participates in community events including Historic Bus related anniversaries and celebrations, entertainment, and social functions.

Your Membership is valued and your participation in BPSWA activities is encouraged to ensure a sustainable future for BPSWA. However, there are no expectations or obligations on members to be actively involved. Active involvement is not compulsory.
